

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

REGULATIONS,

FOR TRANSACTING THE BUSINESS OF CONVOCATION.

TITLE I.

OF THE CHANCELLOR, VICE-CHANCELLOR, AND PRO-VICE-CHANCELLOR.

§ 1. It is the office of the Chancellor (or, in his absence, of the President, as Vice-Chancellor, or of the Vice-President, as Pro-Vice-Chancellor), to summon, adjourn, prorogue and dissolve meetings of Convocation, to preside over them, to authorize the bringing forward of business therein,† to direct the taking of votes,‡ to confer degrees, to incorporate members of other Universities,§ to admit those entitled to seats in convocation, and to carry into execution penalties inflicted upon members of the House.*

§ 2. The Chancellor, before assuming his place in Convocation, shall take the following engagements before the Vice-Chancellor, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, or Senior Proctor, and shall receive from him the insignia of office:—

(1.) “I do sincerely promise that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to her Majesty Queen Victoria, as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of this Province dependent on and belonging to the said Kingdom; and that I will defend her to the utmost of my power against all traitorous conspiracies or attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against her person, crown and dignity; and that I will do my utmost endeavour to disclose and make known to her Majesty, her heirs and successors, all treasons and traitorous conspiracies, and attempts, which I shall know to be against her or any of them; and all this I do promise without any equivocation, mental evasion or secret reservation, and renouncing all pardons and dispensations from any person or power whatsoever to the contrary.”

(2.) “Tu dabis fidem, quod ea omnia fideliter exequeris, quæ ad officium Cancellarii spectent.” Answer, “Do.”

(3.) “Tu dabis fidem ad observandum omnia statuta, privilegia, consuetudines ac libertates istius Universitatis.” Answer, “Do.”

(4.) “Tu dabis fidem quod non revelabis secreta domus Convocationis.” Answer, “Do.”

§ 3. The Vice-Chancellor, before taking his seat in Convocation, shall take the same engagements (mutatis mutandis) before the Chancellor, Pro-Vice-Chancellor or Senior Proctor.

§ 4. The same engagements shall likewise be taken by the Vice-President (mutatis mutandis), before the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor or Senior Proctor.

TITLE II.

OF THE PROCTORS.

The Proctors shall take the first and second of the engagements contained in Title I. § 2. (mutatis mutandis) before the Chancellor or his representative, on the next meeting of Convocation after their election, and receive from him the insignia of their office.

TITLE III.

OF THE SCRUTATORS.

§ 1. The Scrutators shall be chosen from the Professors, or from those Tutors who shall be Masters of Arts of at least three years' standing.

§ 2. It shall be their business to assist the Proctors in the discharge of their duties, particularly *by taking the votes in Convocation, and by acting for them in their absence.

§ 3. Each Proctor shall nominate the Scrutator who shall act for him.

§ 4. The Scrutators shall take the same engagements as the Proctors, (mutatis mutandis), before the Chancellor or his representative.

TITLE IV.

OF THE SECRETARY OF CONVOCATION.

§ 1. The Secretary of Convocation shall, previously to entering on the duties of his office, take the second engagement of Title I. § 2. (mutatis mutandis) before the Senior Proctor.

§ 2. His deputy may be any member of Convocation, if approved by the Chancellor or his representative and the Proctors.

TITLE V.

OF THE MEETINGS OF CONVOCATION.

§ 1. Convocation assembles on the first day of each Term.

§ 2. Other meetings take place during Term, by adjournment or prorogation, or in consequence of a special summons by the Chancellor.

§ 3. All such meetings take place in the morning, immediately after divine service, excepting those which are specially convoked by the Chancellor.

§ 4. A public notice, specifying the Graces to be brought forward, must be affixed in the council-chamber, and a copy sent to each member of Convocation, at least two days before the time of meeting.

§ 5. The presence of seven members is necessary for the transaction of business.

§ 6. All questions in Convocation are finally decided by the majority of votes of the members present; the Presiding Officer having a casting vote, in case of an equality of votes.

§ 7. *The votes are taken by the Scrutators, either openly or secretly, at the discretion of the Presiding Officer.

§ 8. The full academical habit shall be worn at meetings on the first and last days of term, and the half habit at meetings on other days.

TITLE VI.

OF PRECEDENCE.

The members of Convocation take rank and precedence in the following order :

1. Chancellor; 2. President; 3. Vice-President; 4. Proctors; 5. Professors, according to the dates of their appointments; 6. D.D.; 7. D.C.L.; 8. M.D.; 9. B.D.; 10. M.A.; 11. B.C.L.; 12. M.B.; 13. C.M.*

* Statutes, Ch. XII. No. 4.

TITLE VII.

OF QUESTIONS.

§ 1. The terms in which any question is to be brought forward for discussion in Convocation shall be previously settled by the Chancellor or his representative, and the Proctors; and having been read in that form by the Senior Proctor, shall be capable of alteration by the majority of Convocation, with the consent of the Presiding Officer and Proctors.

§ 2. When the terms shall have been settled, the question shall be decided in the affirmative or negative according to the directions of the Statute, contained in Title V., § 6.

TITLE VIII.

OF ADMISSION TO A SEAT IN CONVOCATION.

§ 1. The members of Convocation shall wait upon the Senior Proctor previously to taking their places in the House for the first time.

§ 2. The members shall be presented to the Presiding Officer by the Professor who shall at the time have precedence in their respective Faculties; and previously to admission to their seat, shall take the first engagement contained in Title I. before the Junior Proctor, and the third and fourth before the Senior Proctor.

§ 3. When these engagements shall have been taken, the Officer Presiding shall admit the person in these words:

"Domine (or Domine Magister or Doctor) ego admitto te in hanc domum Convocationis."

TITLE IX.

OF GRACES FOR DEGREES.

§ 1. Application for any Grace must be made either to the Senior Proctor, if the degree be that of M.A. or any higher degree, or to the Junior Proctor, if the degree be lower than that of M.A., and by him communicated to the Officer Presiding and the other Proctor, previously to the Convocation in which it is to be brought forward.

§ 2. *All candidates for degrees are required by statute to produce the certificate of the Vice-President that they are of the requisite standing, and have kept the requisite number of terms,—of the Senior Professor of the Faculty, that they have performed the requisite exercises,—of the Examiners, that they have passed the required examinations,—and of the Bursar, that they are not indebted to the University, and have paid the appointed Fees.

§ 3. The member of Convocation who brings forward the Grace shall do it in the following terms:

"Supplicat Venerabili Domui Convocationis A. B. Scholaris Facultatis Artium (or as the case may be) quatenus omnia compleverit ac præstiterit quæ per statuta requiruntur, ut admittatur ad gradum Baccalaurei in Artibus" (or as the case may be).

§ 4. When this Petition shall have been read, together with the Certificates required by the Statute, the Proctors or Scrutators (by direction of the Officer Presiding) shall take the votes; and, if there be a dissentient vote, the scrutiny shall be repeated, if necessary, until the third time, either on that or some subsequent meeting of Convocation, at the discretion of the Officer Presiding and Proctors, when the question shall be decided by the majority of those present.

§ 5. If the Grace be rejected, the person supplicating shall be disqualified from again coming forward during an entire year.

§ 6. All Graces shall be granted or rejected unconditionally, and without reference to any other proceeding of Convocation.

§ 7. If the Grace be granted, the Proctor shall make the following declaration :

"Hæc gratia concessa est, et sic pronunciamus concessam."

If the Grace be rejected, the form shall be :

"Hæc gratia denegata est, et sic pronunciamus denegatam."

TITLE X.

OF HONORARY DEGREES.

§ 1. The Convocation has power, with the consent of the Council, to confer honorary degrees on distinguished individuals, whether British subjects or foreigners; either on their visiting the University personally, or by diploma.

§ 2. *Such degrees do not entitle the persons who receive them, to exercise the powers and authorities, or enjoy the privileges belonging to the respective degrees, when conferred in the regular manner; unless by special dispensation, approved by the Council and Visitors.

TITLE XI.

OF CONFERRING DEGREES.

§ 1. Every person desirous of being presented for his degree must wait upon either the Senior or Junior Proctor, according to the rank of the degree (as stated under Title IX.), on a day previous to that on which the degree is to be conferred.

§ 2. The precedence of presentation shall be regulated as follows :

The candidate shall be presented by the senior member of the Faculty in which the degree is to be conferred, or in case of his being the Presiding Officer, by the next in order in that faculty.†

§ 3. If there be several candidates for degrees of the same rank, but of different faculties, the candidates shall take precedence according to the rank of their respective faculties.

§ 4. If the degrees be different, the candidates shall be presented according to the rank of their degrees.

§ 5. If both the degree and the faculty be the same, the seniority of the persons presented shall be the criterion.

§ 6. Each candidate shall be presented separately in the following form of words :

"Insignissime Cancellarie (Vice-Cancellarie or Pro-Vice-Cancellarie), vosque egregii Procuratores, præsentō vobis A. B. Scholarem, (or as the case may be) in Facultate Artium, (or as the case may be) ut admittatur ad gradum Baccalaurei, (or as the case may be) testorque eum, quod ad omnia quæ statuta requirunt, aptum et idoneum esse."†

§ 7. He shall then take the engagement of allegiance before the Junior Proctor, and afterwards proceed to the Senior Proctor, before whom he shall take the third engagement contained in Title I.

* Statutes, Ch. XII. No. 7.

† Statutes, Ch. XII. No. 8.

§ 8. He shall then kneel before the Officer Presiding, and be admitted by him to his degree in the appointed form of words:

"Ad [when the degree is in Divinity the following words are to be here introduced—"honorem Domini nostri Jesu Christi et ad"] profectum Britannici imperii provinciæque, ego, auctoritate mea et totius Universitatis, admitto te in gradum Baccalaurei in Artibus (or as the case may be); licentiamque tibi do omnia ea faciendi, quæ ad gradum istum pertinent." (When the degree is in Divinity, the following words are to be added—"in nomine Dei Patris, Filii et Spiritus Sancti.")†

§ 9. Each graduate, after admission, shall sign his name in the register of Convocation: he shall then retire to the Vestibule, and, having arrayed himself in the full habit of his degree, shall re-enter the Hall of Convocation, make his obeisance to the Officer Presiding, and repair to the place assigned to him.

TITLE XII.

OF ADMISSION AD EUNDEM AND INCORPORATION.

§ 1. Students or graduates of any University in her Majesty's dominions may be admitted respectively to the same or a similar standing, or to the same or a similar degree, on producing satisfactory testimonials.

§ 2. The admission and incorporation of graduates of foreign universities, is at the discretion of Convocation.

§ 3. Every graduate admitted by incorporation ranks after all the members of the University, who shall have taken the same degree previously to his incorporation.

§ 4. No graduate can be incorporated, unless he shall have taken his degree in the manner prescribed by his own university.*

§ 5. Every candidate for incorporation must wait upon the Vice-President with the documents which establish his standing or rank in his own university; which documents shall be examined by him and the senior Professor of the faculty to which the candidate belongs; and if they find them satisfactory, they shall grant a certificate thereof, in the following form:

"We hereby certify that we have examined the documents submitted by N., whose petition for incorporation is before the House of Convocation, and that we regard them as satisfactory evidence that he is (mentioning the standing or degree) in the University of N., [that he has taken the degree in the manner prescribed by the statutes of his University,] and that he is qualified for incorporation in the University of King's College."

Signed,

_____, Vice-President.

_____, Sen. Prof. of Faculty.

_____, Junior Registrar.†

N.B. The words included between brackets, shall be omitted when the candidate is not a graduate.

§ 6. It is competent to the officers signing this certificate to ascertain the fact of qualification, should it appear necessary, by examination of the candidate.

§ 7. Every candidate for incorporation shall, before the meeting of Convocation, present, either to the Senior or to the Junior Proctor,

* Statutes, Ch. XII. No. 6.

† Statutes, Ch. XII. No. 8.

(according to his academical rank, as stated under Title IX.,) a petition for incorporation, in the following terms :

"Supplicat Venerabili Domui Convocationis A. B. Baccalaureus in Artibus (or as the case may be) in Academia N. creatus, ut admittatur ad eundem (or similem) gradum, statum et dignitatem inter Torontonienses, quibus ornatus est apud N."*

§ 8. After the reading of the supplicat and certificate, the petition for Incorporation shall be either granted or rejected in the same manner as a grace for a degree.

§ 9. The candidate for incorporation shall be presented in the following form of words :

"Insignissime Cancellarie, (or Vice-Cancellarie, or Pro-Vice-Cancellarie), vosque egregii Procuratores, presento vobis hunc Baccalaureum in Artibus (or as the case may be) in Academia N. creatum, ut sit eodem (vel simili) gradu, statu et dignitate apud nos, quibus ornatus est apud suos."*

§ 10. He shall then take the first engagement contained in Title I., before the Junior Proctor, and the third before the Senior Proctor, and be admitted by the Officer presiding in the following form : "Domine (or as the case may be) ego admitto te in eundem (or similem) gradum, statum et dignitatem hic apud nos, quibus ornatus es apud tuos."*

§ 11. Each person, after admission, shall sign his name in the register of Convocation.

§ 12. No petition for the incorporation of a Doctor in any faculty shall be brought forward, without having been previously communicated to the Presiding Officer and Proctors, and the Senior Professor, if any, of his Faculty.

TITLE XIII.

OF DISPENSATIONS.

§ 1. Every person desiring a dispensation for the non-performance of any duty or exercise required for the obtaining a degree in any faculty, must communicate his wish to the Senior Proctor, by whom it shall be communicated to the Presiding Officer and Junior Proctor.

§ 2. Dispensations shall be carried through Convocation in the same manner as graces for degrees.

§ 3. The form of Petition is as follows :

"Supplicat Venerabili Domui Convocationis A. B. Scholaris in Facultate Artium (or as the case may be) ut gratiose dispensetur secum," &c.; stating the object and grounds of the dispensation required.

TITLE XIV.

OF PENALTIES.

§ 1. The penalties to which members of Convocation shall be liable are fines, suspension or exclusion.

§ 2. These penalties shall be imposed by the Presiding Officer and Proctors conjointly; and the offences of which these officers shall take cognizance shall be absence without reasonable excuse, irregular conduct during any meeting of Convocation, or divulging any part of the proceedings, excepting the results.

§ 3. The amount of fine shall not exceed one pound, nor the period of suspension one term, unless with the consent of the majority of members of the House present; which consent shall also be required in every case of exclusion.

* Statutes, Ch. XII. No. 8.

CHARTER OF KING'S COLLEGE,
GRANTED BY HIS MAJESTY KING GEORGE THE FOURTH,
MARCH 15TH, 1827,
AND
ACT 7 WILLIAM IV., c. 16,
PASSED 4TH MARCH, 1837.

AN ACT
TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF KING'S COLLEGE.

[Passed 4th March, 1837.]

WHEREAS His late Majesty King George the Fourth, was graciously pleased to issue his Letters Patent, bearing date at Westminster, the Fifteenth day of March, in the eighth year of His Reign, in the words following:—
“George the Fourth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth: To all to whom these Presents shall come—Greeting: Whereas the establishment of a College within our Province of Upper Canada, in North America, for the education of Youth in the principles of Christian Religion, and for their instruction in the various branches of Science and Literature which are taught in our Universities in this Kingdom, would greatly conduce to the welfare of our said Province: And whereas, humble application hath been made to Us by many of our loving Subjects in our said Province, that We would be pleased to grant our Royal Charter for the more perfect establishment of a College therein, and for incorporating the Members thereof, for the purposes aforesaid: Now Know Ye, that We having taken the premises into Our Royal consideration, and duly weighing the great utility and importance of such an Institution, have, of our special grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, ordained and granted, and do by these Presents for Us, our Heirs and Successors, ordain and grant, that there shall be established, at or near our Town of York, in our said Province

College, recited.

We do hereby, for Us, our Heirs and Successors, charge and command, that the Statutes, Rules or Ordinances, aforesaid, subject to the said provisions, shall be strictly and inviolably observed, kept and performed, from time to time, in full vigour and effect, under the penalties to be thereby or therein imposed or contained : and We do further will, ordain and grant, that the said College shall be deemed and taken to be an University, and shall have and enjoy all such and the like privileges as are enjoyed by our Universities of our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as far as the same are capable of being had or enjoyed, by virtue of these our Letters Patent; and that the Students in the said College shall have liberty and faculty of taking the degrees of Bachelor, Master, and Doctor, in the several Arts and Faculties, at the appointed times, and shall have liberty within themselves of performing all Scholastic Exercises, for the conferring such degrees, in such manner as shall be directed by the Statutes, Rules and Ordinances of the said College : And We do further will, ordain and appoint, that no Religious test or qualification shall be required of, or appointed for any persons admitted or matriculated as Scholars within our said College, or of persons admitted to any degree in any Art or Faculty therein, save only that all persons admitted within our said College to any degree in Divinity, shall make such and the same declarations and subscriptions, and take such and the same oaths as are required of persons admitted to any degree of Divinity in our University of Oxford : And We do further will and direct and ordain, that the Chancellor, President and Professors of our said College, and all persons admitted therein to the degree of Master of Arts, or to any degree in Divinity, Law or Medicine, and who, from the time of such their admission to such degree, shall pay the annual sum of Twenty Shillings, Sterling Money, for and towards the support and maintenance of the said College, shall be, and be deemed, taken and reputed, to be Members of the Convocation of the said University, and as such Members of the said Convocation shall have, exercise and enjoy, all such and the like privileges as are enjoyed by the Members of the Convocation of our University of Oxford, so far as the same are capable of being had and enjoyed, by virtue of these our Letters Patent, and consistently with the provisions thereof: And We will, and by these Presents for Us, our Heirs and Successors, do grant and declare, that these our Letters Patent, or the enrolment or exemplification thereof, shall and may be good, firm, valid, sufficient and effectual, in the Law, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and shall be taken, construed and adjudged, in the most favorable and beneficial sense, for the best advantage of the said Chancellor, President and Scholars of our said College, as well in our Courts of Record as elsewhere, and by all and singular Judges, Justices, Officers, Ministers and other Subjects whatsoever, of Us, our Heirs and Successors, any misrecital, non-recital, omission, imperfection, defect, matter, cause or thing whatsoever, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: In Witness whereof We have caused these our Letters to be made Patent:—Witness Ourself at Westminster, the Fifteenth day of March, in the Eighth year of Our Reign—By writ of Privy Seal.—(Signed)—Bathurst”: And whereas, certain alterations appear necessary to be made in the same, in order to meet the desire and circumstances of the Colony, and that the said Charter may produce the benefits intended: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and established by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, “An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, ‘An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,’” and by the authority of the same, That for and notwithstanding anything in the said Charter contained, the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench shall, for and on behalf of the King, be Visitors of the said College, in the place and stead of the Lord Bishop of the Diocese of Quebec, for the time being, and that the President of the said University, on any future vacancy, shall be appointed by His Majesty, His Heirs and Suc-
